§ 6-1106. Procedures. [Ord. 2017-2271, 3/15/2017]

2. Editor's Note: See 43 P.S. § 962.1.

1. Filing a complaint.
 - A. Any person(s) who claims he/she or it has been aggrieved by an unlawful practice prohibited in § 6-1103 of this Part may make, sign and file a verified complaint alleging violations of this Part, which shall include the following information:
 - (1) The name and address of the aggrieved person(s);
 - (2) The name and address of the person(s) alleged to have committed the prohibited practice;
 - (3) A concise statement of the facts, including pertinent dates, constituting the alleged discriminatory practice;
 - (4) If applicable, the address and a description of the dwelling unit which is involved; and
 - (5) Such other information as may be required by the Borough.
 - B. Complaints may be filed in person at the Borough Manager's office, or by mailing such complaints to the Borough Manager's office or to the Chairperson of the Human Relations Commission. All complaints must be received by the Borough Manager's office or by Human Relations Commission within 300 days of the alleged act of discrimination to be considered timely.
 - C. The Borough Manager's office shall convey all original complaints received by that Office to the Chairperson of the Human Relations Commission within 10 days of the office's receipt of such complaints.
2. Notification and answer.
 - A. Within 30 days of its receipt of a complaint, the Human Relations Commission shall send a copy of the complaint to the person(s) charged with a discriminatory practice [the "respondent(s)"] and send a notice to the person(s) aggrieved, informing them that their complaint has been received. If the complaint alleges discrimination on a basis proscribed under federal or state law, the notice sent to the person(s) aggrieved shall also inform them of their right to file with the state Human Relations Commission and/or with the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.
 - B. The respondent(s) shall file a written verified answer to the complaint within 60 days of their receipt of the complaint. An answer to a complaint may be filed in the same manner as an original complaint. If the answer is filed with the Borough Manager's office, it shall be conveyed by the Borough Manager to the Chairperson of the Human Relations Commission within 10 days of the Borough Manager's office's receipt thereof. The Commission shall promptly send a copy of the answer to the person(s) aggrieved.

3. Mediation.
 - A. After the answer has been received, the Commission shall, within 60 days, invite the parties to voluntarily participate in the mediation of their dispute. The parties shall respond to the invitation to mediate within 30 days of being invited to mediate their dispute.
 - B. If mediation is elected by the parties, the parties may jointly select a mediation service, in which case the parties shall be financially responsible for all costs and expenses associated with mediation. If the parties do not jointly select a mediator, the Commission shall select a mediator, who may be a member of the Commission, a volunteer from the community, or a contracted mediation service. The Commission shall use cost-free volunteer mediators only, unless funds are approved for contracted mediation services by the Borough Council, or are obtained from an outside funding source.
 - C. The parties shall notify the Commission of whether the mediation was successful in resolving the complaint. Mediation proceedings shall otherwise be confidential and shall not be made public unless agreed to in writing by both parties to the dispute.
4. Dismissal of the complaint. Provided that the Commission has not elected under Subsection 4 of this section to use expanded procedures, the Commission shall, following the mediation, promptly notify the parties that they have dismissed the complaint. If the complaint was not resolved through mediation, this notice shall also indicate that the person aggrieved has a right to pursue the matter in court by filing a lawsuit.
5. Option of the Commission to elect for expanded procedures. Subject to the approval of Borough Council, and provided that funding is available to implement such procedures, the Commission shall have the authority to elect to adopt expanded procedures, as set forth in Subsections 6 through 12 of this section. The Commission may obtain funding for expanded procedures from any available source, including federal or state government entities, private foundations, and other funding sources. A majority of Commission members must vote in favor of adopting expanded procedures in order for such procedures to be adopted. In the event that such procedures are adopted, they must, while in effect, be applied to all complaints that are not resolved through mediation. If the Commission has adopted expanded procedures it may also by majority vote, and in its sole discretion, eliminate such procedures. Provided funds are available, it shall be solely within the discretion of the Commission and the Borough Council to decide whether to adopt or eliminate expanded procedures, and no person shall have the right to make any claim, bring any action, or otherwise contest the Commission and/or Council's decision to adopt, decline to adopt, or eliminate expanded procedures. This section does not create any private right or entitlement to have expanded procedures implemented, even if funding is available for such procedures.

6. Expanded procedures: dismissal or nondismissal of the complaint. If mediation was successful in resolving the complaint, the Commission shall follow the procedures set forth in Subsection D of this section for dismissing the complaint. If mediation was not successful in resolving the complaint, the Commission shall not dismiss the complaint, but shall instead undertake the procedures set out in Subsections 7 through 9 of this section.
7. Expanded procedures: investigation. The Commission shall, in a timely fashion, investigate the allegations of discrimination set forth in the complaint. The Commission may, in the conduct of such investigation, issue subpoenas to any person charged with an unlawful practice to furnish information, records or other documents, as necessary to assist in its investigation.
8. Expanded procedures: finding of no cause. If it shall be determined after the Commission's investigation that there is no basis for the allegations of the complaint, the Commission shall cause to be issued and served upon the parties written notice of such determination. This notice shall inform the person aggrieved that they have the right to pursue the matter in court by filing a lawsuit.
9. Expanded procedures: conciliation. If the Commission, after investigation, determines that probable cause exists for the allegations of the complaint, the Commission shall immediately endeavor to eliminate the unlawful practice complained of by persuasion, conference and conciliation.
10. Expanded procedures: public hearing.
 - A. If the Commission, in its discretion, finds it is not possible to eliminate the unlawful practices by persuasion, the Commission shall cause to be issued and served a written notice, together with a copy of the complaint, which informs the respondent that they must answer the charges of such complaint at a hearing before the Commission at a time and place to be specified in such notice.
 - B. The Commission may designate one or more of its members to preside at such a hearing, or it may at its election conduct such hearing "en banc."
 - C. At the public hearing, the case in support of the complaint shall be presented to the Commission by counsel for the complainant or by Commission staff. The case in support of the complaint may instead be presented by the complainant's attorney, if the complainant is represented. Both the complainant and the respondent may appear at the hearing with or without counsel, and provide testimony. In addition, both the complainant and the respondent may introduce the testimony of additional witnesses, and may submit documentary evidence. The Commission and the parties shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence at the hearing.
11. Expanded procedures: findings. If upon consideration of all of the evidence at the hearing, the Commission finds that a respondent has engaged in or is engaging in any unlawful discriminatory act as defined in this Part, the Commission shall state its findings of fact, and shall issue and cause to be served on such respondent an order requiring such respondent to cease and desist from such unlawful discriminatory practice and to take such additional action as the Commission deems appropriate. The Commission shall have the authority to order any remedies available to the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act.³

12. Expanded procedures: finding of no discrimination. If, upon consideration of all of the evidence, the Commission finds that a respondent has not engaged in any unlawful discriminatory act as defined in this Part, the Commission shall state its findings of fact, and shall issue and cause to be served on the parties an order dismissing the complaint as to such respondent.

§ 6-1107. Private right of action and nonlimitation of remedies. [Ord. 2017-2271, 3/15/2017]

1. Any person(s) aggrieved by a violation of this Part shall have a right of action in the Chester Court of Common Pleas or any other court of competent jurisdiction, and may recover for each violation the following remedies:
 - A. Back pay, front pay and other actual damages;
 - B. Emotional distress damages;
 - C. Exemplary damages;
 - D. Reasonable attorney's fees and court costs; and
 - E. Such other relief, including injunctive relief, as the court may deem appropriate.
2. The right of action created by this Part may be brought upon receipt by the aggrieved person(s) of notice that the Commission has dismissed the complaint or if no such notice is received, after one year from the date of the filing of the complaint. If the person aggrieved has received notice that the Commission has dismissed the complaint, an action under this Part must be brought by the aggrieved person within one year from the date of receipt of said notice or it will be barred. Equitable principles such as waiver, estoppel and equitable tolling shall apply to the time limitations for the filing of any complaint or other pleading under this Part.
3. Nothing in this Part limits the right of an aggrieved person to recover under any other applicable law or legal theory.

3. Editor's Note: See 43 P.S. § 951 et seq.
